Seeking a project that offers a great investment opportunity?

This property is an excellent project with numerous options.

The unit as a whole, encompasses 293 square meters. It serves as a blank canvas with limitless possibilities. In front of the building, there is a 70-square-meter, open terrace. The total plot size is 955 square meters.

The land is urban and is part of Solana Gardens in Alcalá.

The construction could easily be divided into three separate apartments, each with a private terrace.

Alternatively, it could serve as a large family home with a private swimming pool.

The property also lends itself as a fantastic commercial enterprise. It could be converted for business as a restaurant, shop, or storage units.

From a commercial perspective, it is situated in an excellent location with convenient access and ample parking space for several cars.
