This country house in the Canor is like a wonderful retreat surrounded by nature yet conveniently close to town. Its four cozy bedrooms make it ideal for a large family or hosting guests, and the possibility of adding more bathrooms provides flexibility.

The riu-rau adds a lot of character to the property with its typical Valencian architecture, offering a unique space to relax and enjoy views of the garden. The single-floor layout ensures accessibility for everyone, which is a great feature.

There are also two independent studios on the plot are a fantastic bonus, providing additional living space or potential rental income. The surrounding garden sounds like a peaceful haven, perfect for enjoying outdoor activities or simply relaxing in tranquility.

Overall, this property seems like a perfect blend of rustic charm, modern comfort, and natural beauty—a place where one can truly unwind and appreciate the peaceful surroundings.
