Life has no do overs: it is certainly up to us to make the best of each moment by embracing the present while being mindful of the future – our future. Where do you envision your tomorrow in? Is it in your old place, the one which you are determined will remain your forever home even though time is evolving and everything is slowly getting out of date, and it costs an arm and leg to update and renovate? Or do you see a future in which you get to enjoy all the conveniences of modern comforts? For option two, we have the solution for you!

This luxury flat is located in a residential area along the Benissa Coast and is the pinnacle of elegance and charm. In a great optimization of technology and within an award winning Spanish apartment, no cost has been spared in order to assure your satisfaction in choosing this as your forever home or vacation property. The living room is amazing with its elaborate yet modest wall unit that houses the main entertainment unit of the home, books, among other family pieces. With more than adequate lighting as afforded by the expansive glazed openings in addition to spectacular lightings, to say that the space is bright would be an understatement!

An open plan concept links the dining area with the kitchenette which are conveniently situated for easy access. There are two bedrooms within the property with one master and another double. Each room is unique in itself. The master bedroom, sitting room and corridor off the kitchen area provide access to what is a generous terrace which covers the outer side of the flat.

In addition to a nice communal pool area, spa and fitness area, you can see how this would be an ideal home and great fit for your family's needs.
