It is beautiful and big enough to allow any alterations you wish, yet it is situated in a tranquil setting to provide the calm and seclusion you want for the place you will soon call home. A wonderful chance for you to own a home that stands out in every other way, you are unquestionably in the correct location for a house that has the makings of a movie, but is yours at the touch of a phone.

The big open living area, which serves up stunning views of the Mediterranean and the marina, is as welcoming as they come, with its arrangement intentionally constructed to focus on the entertainment installations while yet allowing snatches of nature to creep into the home. As the dazzling and airy atmosphere continues, the dining room has also been included in these magnificent additions. The image would be incomplete without a spacious, well-equipped kitchen in which to explore and try out different cuisines, either alone or with the entire family participating in any way possible, even if it is with jokes and laughter!

There are 4 big bedrooms and 4 bathrooms with stunning views via glass openings: what a terrific way to wake up and drift off as you forget the strains and cares of life while caught in trance by this gorgeous scenery.

Don't worry if you want to move the celebration outside! From the expansive pool area to the BBQ area, garden, and adequate parking, you have everything you need to throw the party of the year.

This must-see property is completely move-in ready and full of every feature you could desire — come in to view it before it's gone!
